—Senor Nepomuceno.

"The Moros, Negritos and Igorrotes No More Represent the Filipinos Than the Dying Indian Represents the People of the United States."

FRAGMENTARY TRIBES SHOWN FOR POLITICAL PURPOSES

Honorary Commissioner Declares Mass Meetings Were Held in Manila to Protest Against This Slander of 7,000,000 Civilized Christians."

Senor Vicente Nepomuceno, a member of the Philippine honorary commission, now in St. Louis, declares that the so-called Philippine village at the Fair is nothing more than a coup of Machiavellism on the part of the Republican administration.

He protests that the exhibition does not reveal the condition of the Filipino, nor was it ever intended that their true state of advancement should be disclosed.

He asserts that the exhibition is but a foil seeking to justify in the public mind the administration's insincerity toward the Filipino.

"There are 8,000,000 people in the Philippines," said Senor Nepomuceno, through an interpreter, to the Post-Dispatch, "and of these 7,000,000 are civilized Christians, orderly, peace-loving and law-abiding. The remaining 1,000,000 are made up from among the Moros, Negritos and Igorrotes, the anthropoids, who live in the mountains in an uncivilized state, and who, like all backward and non-progressive races, are rapidly dying out."

These Are Only
Fragmentary Tribes.

"The Moros, Negritos and Igorrotes no more represent the people of the Philippines than the dying Indian represents the American people, and the American would resent such an exhibition far more vigorously than we have."

"When the Filipinos learned that these fragmentary tribes were being brought to this country to represent the islands at the Fair a mass meeting was held and a protest was sent to Gov. Taft."

"It was of no avail, but as a sort of sop the Philippine honorary commission was appointed and 50 representative citizens were named to tour the United States. Of course, the damage had been done; the impression had gone abroad that we are barbarians; that we eat dog and all that sort of thing, and no matter how long we stay here we cannot convince the public to the contrary."

"The Filipinos are being preposterously misrepresented at the Fair."

"We are entirely ready for self-government and we were not prepared for it by the United States, but the administration does not seem to want to go."

"In furtherance of this determination to hold our reins of government they have gone into the remotest corners of the islands, gathered together the lowest types of the inhabitants and brought them to this country to exhibit in an attempt to justify their paternal grip on the islands."

"This Alleged Philippine Village."

"It is shrewd political work, and this alleged Philippine village is the monument to it."

"In regard to the economic system proposed, it is the most impracticable plan conceivable, if it is sincere."

"An order has been promulgated that in January, 1904, every Filipino official must be able to use the English language fluently in both reading and writing. The result of this will be that every Filipino holding office, from the most inconsequential up, will be forced out of office."

"I am in the legal branch of the government service. Think how unreasonable it is to expect me to so master the English language that I could carry on a prosecution against an American-born lawyer. When one considers that many a decision hangs upon some fine point of language it is absurd to think that I could intelligently do any work under such circumstances."

"Whether the administration intends then to pack our government with Americans of course, I do not know, but I do know that it has overstocked us with an army of employees, the great majority of whom are neither needed or wanted."

"The Philippine civilization is 300 years old, and Castilian environment has been engrafted into the people; they cannot help it; and it is ridiculous for an enlightened race such as yours to suppose that you can change it in a few years."

"As regards our present status, it is sure, by no better than under the former rule; it is really worse when we consider that an enormous debt has been piled up on us, while a prohibitive tariff has shut out all commerce and dwarfed our revenues."

"We want to establish an open-door policy and encourage in every way possible the investment of foreign capital. We appreciate that our undeveloped resources are enormous, and that by a wise and equitable policy we can make wonderful gains."

Natives From Port Arthur Say Mikado's Troops Captured a Fort and That Russians Cut Them Off and Annihilated Them.

RUSSIANS LOST 2000 MEN
IN FIGHT AT MAO-TIEN PASS

Not a General Engagement, But a Series of Small Fights in Which the Czar's Troops Were Beaten From Every Position.

CHEEFOO, July 13, 9 p. m.—A junk with eight Russians and 50 Chinese aboard arrived here this afternoon, five days from Port Arthur. The Russians refused to talk, but the Chinese say that on July 11 and 12 the Japanese captured and occupied, with 400 men, one of the eastern forts near Port Arthur.

Before reinforcements arrived the Russians cut off the 400 troops in the fort and exploded mines which resulted in the killing of every Japanese soldier there.

The Chinese report also that the night before they left Port Arthur a Russian torpedo boat sank a merchant ship near Port Arthur, mistaking her for a Japanese transport.

Many Chinese on board the merchantman were drowned, but the white crew of the steamer and a number of her Chinese passengers were rescued by the Russians. If this story is true, the steamer in question probably is the Hipsang, belonging to the Indo-China Navigation Co., which is 45 hours overdue from New-Chwang and which was reported to have struck a mine. The local agents of the Hipsang say they believe the steamer to have been lost.

NIEHAUS GIVEN
DEATH SENTENCE

Penalty Affixed at This Time to Enable Him to Take Case to Supreme Court.

Lambert Niehaus, who, on Dec. 20 last, shot and killed Thomas Fluegel, in a saloon at Third and St. George streets, and was convicted of murder in the first degree at his trial a few weeks ago, was Tuesday morning sentenced by Judge Taylor to hang, Sept. 6.

Niehaus wants to appeal his case to the Supreme Court, and the sentence was imposed at this time to enable him to take the case up.

Niehaus and Fluegel fought in the saloon and, after they had been separated, Niehaus left. Fluegel remained and was at the bar drinking a glass of beer when Niehaus returned with a shotgun and blew the top of Fluegel's head off.

Niehaus's defense was that he had got the gun to go hunting and returned to the saloon to get a drink when Fluegel struck him in the face with a beer glass. Niehaus says he then fired in self-defense.

LAGRAVE CASE CONFUSING

Letters Are Received at Fair Addressed to "M. Picard, Commissioner-General."

The members of the French commission at the Fair are rapidly getting into the condition of not knowing what to think. Documentary evidence is accumulating in the commissioner-general's case, but it is only adding to their confusion.

Mopday cablegrams were received from M. Lagrave, signed "Commissioner-general," and attaches of the commission cited them triumphantly as proving that Lagrave still reigns. Tuesday letters came from New York addressed to "M. Picard, commissioner-general," and they were not so sure about it.

Jules Bouffe, secretary of the commission, is not so certain as he was that the change has not taken place. He has wavered enough to grope for a possible explanation of the appointment of M. Picard. He found it Tuesday. The explanation is that the French government wants to pay a very high compliment to the St. Louis exposition. He cannot imagine any other explanation.

M. Picard received so many higher honors from France than he has from the Fair that the secretary thinks it is his duty to appoint him to confer distinction on the Fair.

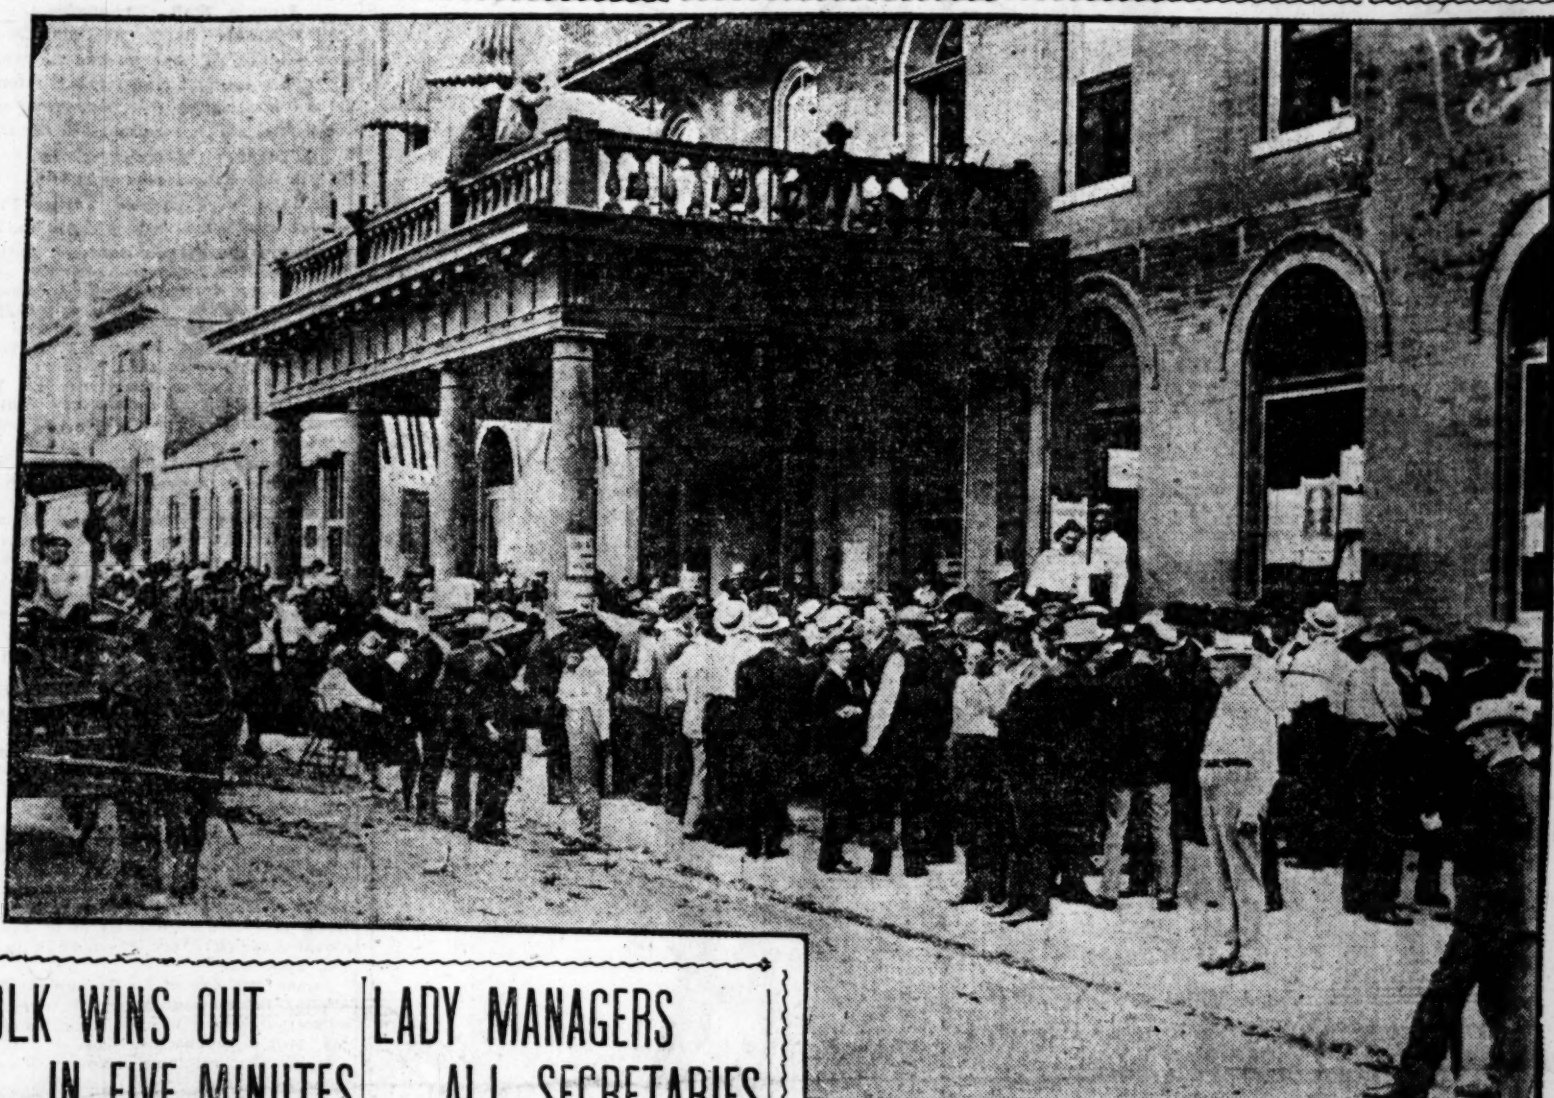

Frenchmen generally at the Fair think Lagrave has resigned. They say that he is marked for political extinction by his enemies.

Blind Instructors Meet.

Members of the American Association of Instructors for the Blind will meet in next week's session in the Hall of Congress at the Fair Wednesday to continue in session three days. Judge J. H. Hawthorn of the board of managers, and W. T. Carrington, state superintendent of public schools for Missouri, and Dr. H. M. Post of the board of managers of the Missouri school for the blind, will deliver addresses.

FOLK WINS OUT IN FIVE MINUTES

Shrewd Management of Frank Walsh Gives Him Everything in Kansas City.

From a Staff Correspondent.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 19.—The Folk contingent in the Fifth district delegation, through the shrewd management of Frank Walsh, routed the Cook and Allen combination from Jackson County in five minutes in the preliminary caucus this morning.

Dr. J. A. Horrigan, a strong Folk man, and opposed to Cook and Allen, was chosen for a member of the committee on credentials.

John Lynch, who has been fighting the police in Kansas City, was selected for the committee on rules and order of business, and J. M. Lowe, a Walsh delegate, upon whom a strong fight was made in the Twelfth ward in Kansas City, will be the member of the committee on credentials from Jackson County.

Pat Moore was selected for chairman of the delegation and Mike E. Casey was chosen secretary.

The chairman of the Jackson County central committee signed the credentials of the Sixth ward delegation, headed by Mike Ross.

The Sixth was the only Kansas City ward in which there was a contest. Ross represents the anti-Cook sentiment. The meeting was remarkably harmonious. Following the lead of the state committee the Jackson County machine organization simply took its medicine.

RASSIEUR MAY SEEK NOMINATION

Former Probate Judge May Oppose Walbridge in the Fight for Republican gubernatorial Prize.

Judge Leo Rassieur may become a candidate for the Republican gubernatorial nomination. His friends are urging him to consent to the presentation of his name.

During the past few days Judge Rassieur has received a great number of letters from men who admire his qualities, most of them coming from South St. Louis. In these he has been petitioned to come out against C. F. Walbridge for the nomination.

To some of his friends Judge Rassieur has intimated that he will make up his mind by Wednesday and announce his decision.

One of the principal reasons urged by the friends of Judge Rassieur why, in their opinion, he would be a stronger candidate than Mr. Walbridge, is the connection of the latter with the Bell Telephone Co.

There is also a disposition to resent the action of the Republican City central committee in endorsing Walbridge and soliciting him to become a candidate.

Walbridge was born in Germany. He came to St. Louis before the civil war and commanded a volunteer regiment in that war. He was elected to the Probate bench, defeating Judge Woerner, who had held the office 24 years. He has been commander in chief of the G. A. R. and has always been prominent in G. A. R. circles. He is now practicing law.

Abuse Is Chief Allegation.

Suits for divorce were filed Tuesday by Ellen E. Holly against Benjamin Holly and by Josephine McHenry against John McHenry. Abuse is the chief allegation in each case, and the custody of a 17-month-old child.

LADY MANAGERS
ALL SECRETARIES

Members of Board Plunge Into Accounts While Miss Carter's Services Are Withheld.

The board of lady managers is at work on the serious problem play: "How to Keep Books, or, Every Lady Manager Her Own Secretary."

The first act was put on when Miss Egan was discharged as secretary and Miss Etta Lou Carter employed. It went very nicely, with defiance followed by a happy reconciliation, slow music and a tea party.

The second act brought in the only villain in the play, an impersonal brute dubbed Trouble. Miss Carter, who is also secretary to Miss Florence Hayward, chief of the historical department, could not possibly give all her time to the board of lady managers; for there was work for her to do in Miss Hayward's department.

The villain is in a fair way of being routed. The lady managers have risen to the occasion, and what Miss Carter cannot find time to do Mrs. Manning, who has the leading role, Mrs. Holcombe, Mrs. Montgomery and Mrs. Hanger are doing. Each represents the anti-Cook sentiment.

The lady managers say they are doing very nicely, and that by the time Miss Carter can get through with Miss Hayward's work and take up the board work things will be in excellent shape.

The lady managers have cause for self-congratulation. Monday afternoon W. E. Andrews of the United States treasury department went over their books with them, and Miss Egan has dropped out of the cast since the tea party finale of the first act, and has a seat in the audience.

LIGHTNING STRIKES
MEXICO PAVILION;
NO ONE WAS HURT

Storm and Heavy Wind Sweep Over City, Bringing Cool Weather, While Prediction Had Been Only "Not So Warm."

Several hundred people were sent frightened and hurrying into the plaza, one side of a cupola on the Mexican building at the Fair, was torn off and $300 damage done by a lightning bolt at 1 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

So violent was the shock that telephone bells were set ringing in the Administration building. It came following a hard wind and shower. A large number of people had come upon the porches of the building for protection when the bolt struck.

They did not know of the danger until it was over, and while scores were prompted to flee to what they believed a safer place, there was none hurt nor anything that resembled a panic.

The lightning followed a storm of wind and rain which descended almost without warning on the Fair and the western part of the city at 12:30.

It was heralded by a gust of wind, which raised the dust in clouds. In a few minutes the velocity of the wind increased from six miles to 32 miles an hour. In nine minutes there was one-third of an inch of rain-fall. The wind shifted around from the northwest to the southwest.

At the height of the storm there was a vivid flash of lightning and a boom of thunder which shook the buildings.

In more than one building it was believed that that building had been struck. Investigation showed, though, that the Mexican pavilion was the only one that had been struck.

There were a number of visitors in the Mexican pavilion when it was struck. They were all shocked somewhat, but none seriously.

The storm brought the lower temperature which had been promised by the weather bureau, a little sooner than was expected. There was an instant and very perceptible cooling of the atmosphere when the storm struck.

The band played a number of popular airs. "Dixie" set the audience wild. The arrival of Congressman Champ Clark and other prominent politicians was the signal for repeated handclapping and applause.

Mr. Rothwell's gavel sounded again and again before the crowd could be stifled. When order was finally secured Mr. Rothwell stepped to the front of the stage, and another round of cheering followed.

WILL NOMINATE COOK.

Mr. Rothwell was in fine voice and he could be heard from all parts of the hall. The fact that he is to place Secretary of State Sam B. Cook in nomination added to the interest in his formal speech.

The opening invocation was delivered by Rev. C. E. Pafford, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

Gov. Dockery, through the chairman, invited all the delegates and alternates to visit the executive mansion. The announcement was greeted with faint applause.

Mr. Rothwell spoke briefly of his retirement from the chairmanship of the state committee, and thanked the Democratic party for the honor he had enjoyed as one of its leaders. He then said he hoped brotherly feeling would prevail in the convention, and pleaded for harmony, saying that the great leaders of the Democratic party put their shoulders to the wheel two years ago and carried the state by 5,000.

"We should make the majority 100,000 this year," he said.

When the temporary organization was announced, Delegate James C. Jones of St. Louis sprung a surprise on the convention by moving to substitute the name of H. F. Nolan of Lewis County as temporary secretary in place of John J. Byrne of Jefferson County, who was selected by the state committee. Byrne it appears, supported Hawes for the gubernatorial nomination and, in addition, the Folk delegates opposed him on the ground that he is too close to machine influence. JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 19.—With hundreds vainly pressing for admittance, and 140 persons taking the Hall of Representatives to its capacity, confusion prevailed among delegates and spectators when Chairman W. A. Rothwell called the Democratic state convention to order shortly after noon today.

Cries of "Hurrah for Folk!" "Hooray for Hawes!" "Down with boodlers!" resounded through the hall, and the ability of the sergeant-at-arms and his assistants was put to the severest test.

It was a noisy and a troublesome audience. Every delegate is a shirter and there are 18 electric fans on the side walls to keep them cool.

A half hour before the convention opened the crowd was clamoring for entrance. Hundreds were packed into uncomfortable mass near the door, and the stairways could scarcely contain the multitude that lined up behind the other multitude, filling the corridors and lobbies of the capitol building and breathing space was at a premium.

The band played a number of popular airs. "Dixie" set the audience wild. The arrival of Congressman Champ Clark and other prominent politicians was the signal for repeated handclapping and applause.

Mr. Rothwell's gavel sounded again and again before the crowd could be stifled. When order was finally secured Mr. Rothwell stepped to the front of the stage, and another round of cheering followed.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 19.—Folk men from St. Louis grew wrathly this morning when they saw a United States flag flying from a window of the Madison House bearing the name of Sam B. Cook.

"That's against the law," shouted a delegation of twenty-seventh ward men. "Sam Cook should not be permitted to use the state-ensigned banner to help him get a reform ticket—a place where he, above all other candidates, does not belong."

COCHRAN WILL NAME TODD, BUT WILL VOTE FOR COOK

Declaration of N. W. McLeod Against Violation of Instructions Has Served to Keep Many in Line—Crow Is Not a Candidate.

By a Staff Correspondent.
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 19.—Chafing under instructions which they do not believe represent the sentiment of their counties and asserting that the proposed platform declaring against "accessories to boodle deals" relieves them from their obligation to vote for him, the representatives of several delegations have held a secret caucus, at which it was practically decided not to support the candidacy of Secretary of State Sam B. Cook.

The caucus was in session nearly three hours and it was after midnight when adjournment was taken. Among those who took the initiative at the meeting were C. C. Crow of St. Joseph, James Houchin, chairman of the Cole County delegation, which is instructed to vote for Cook, and a dozen others whose names have been carefully withheld.

It was the sense of the gathering that a meeting be called for 4 o'clock in the afternoon in the A. O. U. W. hall to formulate a definite plan of action and further "to invite all instructed Cook delegates who do not feel bound to follow their instruction in view of the language of the platform" to attend. One of those who attended the conference made this statement to the Post-Dispatch:

"In denouncing the accessories as well as the principals to boodle the platform written by Mr. Cook necessarily excludes us from voting for the nomination of Cook. We have therefore decided to wait upon Mr. Cook and to inform him that under the circumstances we do not feel bound by our instructions to vote for him.

"The platform and the candidates should certainly agree.

"And this is impossible while the 'accessory plank' remains; our first duty is to the principles of the Democratic party. It is a question of men, not means. Mr. Cook must be beaten. We will tell him so plainly and I hope he will appreciate our good offices."

Mr. Cook is still full of fight and apparently is not worrying over the proposed bolt. His friends say some of the delegates are threatening him, but that when the convention meets and the nominations are called all of the instructed delegates will be in line.

They have heard of "opposition conferences" held informally through the night, but they are not frightened, they say, and if anything they are more hopeful of success now than ever.

Mr. McLeod's statement that "I am trying to prevent the delegates from bolting their instructions," has given them fresh courage. They believe McLeod's warning will do much to prevent an open bolt. The fact that the Cook forces are not expected to unseat more than 25 or 30 Hawes delegates from St. Louis has also had its effect. Mr. Cook, if all signs fall now, will go into the convention with about 300 instructed votes. He may get 350 or the number necessary to nominate, if he can find a candidate for some other office who will consent to trade his strength, a candidate who can "deliver the goods."

Congressman Mont Cochran of St. Joseph, a delegate to the state convention from Buchanan County, who is instructed to vote for the renomination of Secretary of State Cook and Auditor Allen, is in a peculiar, if not a remarkable predicament. Desiring to vote against the machine candidates, he has decided to voice his opposition and indicate to the convention his position by placing in nomination for secretary of state J. D. Todd of Maryville.

"It will give me much pleasure," said Congressman Cochran to the Post-Dispatch, "to place Mr. Todd's name before the convention. He is an upright, honorable gentleman and would make a most capable executive officer."

"How this convention can go on record for Mr. Cook is something I cannot understand. I know, and the leaders of the Democratic party in Missouri know, that we cannot face the Republicans on the stump with the issue of Cook's record. Should Cook be placed on the ticket the Democracy would lose thousands and thousands of votes if, indeed, such a mistake would not cost us the loss of the entire state ticket."

"Surely the delegates who are about to plunge into the error of voting for Mr. Cook must realize that they are tying a millstone about the Democratic party, and as the Post-Dispatch has repeatedly stated, inviting political humiliation and disaster."

"I suppose I am in the same dilemma as are many of the delegates. That is to say, my county, which I do not believe is for Cook by a 1 to 2 has instructed me to vote for him. I shall not violate that instruction."

"But in casting this vote I desire to make it plain that I am not in sympathy with Mr. Cook's public record."

"There are enough instructed votes, however, to defeat Mr. Cook. If it rests with the independent delegates to say whether we shall stultify ourselves or taking courage go into the convention and show the people of Missouri that the voice and the conscience of the Democratic party in this state is still on the side of right, still on the side of justice, that it approves the platform upon which our gubernatorial standard bearer will ask the suffrages of the people of Missouri."

Attorney-General Crow has preemptorily declined to consent to the use of his name as a candidate for re-nomination.

CHOPIN'S CONVENTION COMICS

"INVITE BOODLERS TO LEAVE MISSOURI"

FIRST MACHINE KNOCKOUT.

By a vote of 401 to 250 the convention decided to remove Byrne and substitute Nolan. This action was a knockout blow to the machine, although many of the instructed and pledged for Folk rallied to Byrne's support.

Congressman W. D. Vandiver's speech on his introduction as temporary chairman was well received. His reference to Bryan was followed by wild cheering.

"What the matter with Parker?" yelled a delegate when the Bryan ovation was subdued. The delegates applauded vociferously and Mr. Vandiver proceeded to compliment the presidential candidate in terms of highest praise.

Upon assuming his duties, Chairman Vandiver introduced Dr. J. P. Porth, mayor of Jefferson City, who welcomed the delegates.

Major Porth had hardly taken his seat when Delegate Jones of St. Louis threw a bomb into the convention by presenting a resolution instructing the committee on credentials to refuse credentials to delegates whose election was brought about "by police intimidation." The resolution was regarded as being aimed at the Hawes delegates.

Instantly a dozen delegates were on their feet protesting against the resolution and demanding that it be ruled out of order. Chairman Vandiver rapped for order, but the delegates, dividing their applause for and against the various motions made, refused to be quiet.

The sergeant-at-arms was instructed by the chairman to eject every unruly person.

Mr. Jones insisted upon the chair's attention. He was alternately cheered and hissed. Jones was not recognized, but the chairman requested him to send the resolution to the desk to be read, which was done.

"I desire to second the resolution presented by the gentleman from St. Louis (Jones), who participates in this convention on a proxy."

Another demonstration, lasting several minutes, followed this announcement.

Finally Delegate Harber moved to lay the Jones resolution on the table. While rollcall was in progress Mr. Harber announced that he would withdraw his motion.

Jones' resolution was then put and carried by a vote.

The convention was in disorder 20 minutes. At 2:15 the delegates proceeded to the selection of district representatives for the committee on permanent organizations and platforms and rules.

A 1:30 the convention adjourned until 3 o'clock tonight.

VANDIVER URGES PARTY TO INVITE BOODLERS TO GET OUT OF MISSOURI

The speech of Congressman W. D. Vandiver on assuming the office of temporary chairman was as follows:

Gentlemen of the Convention: The honor of presiding over the deliberations of this body of representatives of the people of Missouri is a distinction worthy to stimulate the pride of any Missourian, and yet I must declare to you that the sense of responsibility is heavier than any feeling of personal satisfaction.

"This gavel is not to be the instrument of arbitrary power; it is the symbol of order. It is a fact to be proud of that no state Democratic convention in Missouri has ever run by gavel rule. So I shall be so long as freemen sit at this council table, I need not, therefore, assure you that fair treatment and impartial ruling shall be meted out to all."

"On the symbol of order, I have placed the gavel of the same man who has fought the battles of Democracy for the past 25 years. He is the same man who has fought the battles of Democracy for the past 25 years. He is the same man who has fought the battles of Democracy for the past 25 years."

"I am not an enthusiastic supporter of any candidate, but sometimes it is good for the soul to climb to higher mountain peaks and gaze into the blue dome for the stars that guide the ship of state, and drink in new inspiration from the galaxy of such noble names as Thomas Jefferson and Andrew Jackson, Sam Tilden and Wm. J. Bryan, the greatest living man on this continent."

Thomas Jefferson founded the Democratic party on the cardinal doctrine that the people have sense enough and virtue enough to govern themselves, or to select others to do it for them. In his philosophy of government all power came up from the people. Alexander Hamilton furnished a foundation for the Republican party in the opposite view, closely allied to the doctrine of divine right, that political power comes down from above, and hence a Republican politician always wants prosperity to trickle down through the upper crust to the fellows below, who may catch the crumbs from the table."

The great fundamental principle of democracy are abiding, and the thoughtful man should always be rallied to their support. When this convention makes a ticket, that ticket stands for these doctrines—these fundamental principles—and the ticket is my ticket."

"I may not get every name on it that I want on it, but that is my misfortune, and I shall not sacrifice the principles which democracy stands for, simply because of temporary disappointment."

"I have always held that a man who cannot stand a defeat is not worthy of a victory."

Jones' battle on high ground. Sound the tocsin of war on corruption, whether in Missouri legislature, St. Louis assembly or the postoffice department at Washington."

Declare in bold terms that there is no room in the Democratic party for a boodler. Invite every boodler and boodle sympathizer to leave this state, and offer them shelter here only in the walls of the penitentiary—don't drive them out of the state we can at least drive them into the Republican party."

Are even they now counting that support? Let it be known that the only hope of Republicanism in Missouri is through the aid of the honest men who would sell the honor of the state for private gain."

Invite all good men to join with this crusade against crime under the banner of a gallant knight as ever drew a lance on the field of chivalry, and the men who have commissioned up to do the work of this convention will clash hands and carry that banner to victory in November."

When the vote on the temporary chairman was announced it was moved to make it unanimous.

Judge McCaffery objected. "I want my vote to stand as it is recorded," declared the judge, with some show of warmth.

The session of the state committee resolved itself into a sort of love feast, but here and there biting sarcasm was passed upon Mr. Folk.

When the nominations for temporary secretary of the convention were reached, Mr. Shaw presented John J. Byrne of Franklin County, saying: "Gentlemen, he is an original Folk man."

James T. Nolan of La Grange received a similar endorsement when his name was submitted, and it is understood Nolan was Mr. Folk's personal selection.

Byrne won, receiving 24 votes, as against 1 for Nolan, one committeeman not voting. After Byrne had been elected somebody informed the Folk people that they had been trapped by the machine.

"How is that?" asked the Folk delegate.

"Why, don't you know Byrne is the superintendent of Ed Butler's farm in Jefferson County?" was the reply.

Investigation is said to have confirmed this report. The Folk delegates were wrathful, but it was too late to do anything, except to wait and oppose Byrne on the floor of the convention.

Following the procedure every name was presented with the modifying phrase that "our candidate has always been for Folk."

J. D. Stark, former warden of the state penitentiary, who lives in Cooper County, was elected sergeant-at-arms. He defeated J. T. Welles of Dunklin County.

Mr. Stark was allowed assistants, namely: James Hagerman of St. Louis, J. W. Armstrong of Pulaski, Steve Sedgewick and S. Cummings of Kansas City, and Fred Hawley of Franklin County.

When these names were announced Congressman Butler suggested that the qualifications of the gentlemen should be enumerated.

"I wish to know," said Mr. Butler, bitingly, "whether the men who are mentioned for jobs as sergeants-at-arms are possessed of the proper physical proportions for the burdensome and responsible duties which will devolve upon them. They should have athletic frames, courage, aggressiveness and above all, a splendid volume of muscle."

"We understand there may be serious trouble, if not a riot, in the convention, and certainly to provide against any such contingency our doorkeepers and sergeants-at-arms should be men desirable." Having delivered this oratorical bit, Mr. Butler took his seat, smiled and the committee smiled with him.

"What is your pleasure next, gentlemen?" asked Chairman Rothwell, and then the usual routine incident to the convention occupied the attention of the delegates.

The committee voted to recognize in the preliminary organization all those bearing credentials from the election boards or the properly constituted authorities in the various county conventions.

This means the Hawes delegates will be entitled to vote solidly until the permanent organization is effected, unless the Folk forces should desire to veto the decision of the committee.

VANDIVER VICTORY TEST OF STRENGTH

Cook Representative on State Committee Voted for Folk's Choice for Temporary Chairman.

HOW BUTLERITE SLIPPED IN

Superintendent of Boss' Farm Was Introduced as an "Original" Supporter of Folk.

From a Staff Correspondent.
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 19.—"It was a bitter pill, but we had to swallow it," said a machine leader today, referring to the meeting of the Democratic state committee, which recommended Chairman W. D. Vandiver for temporary chairman of the convention by a vote of 22 to 8.

Mr. Vandiver defeated Justice Frank Kiebler of St. Louis, whose name was presented by Congressman James J. Butler.

The Tenth and Eleventh districts added to scattering votes from outside committees constituted Mr. Kiebler's support. Among those who opposed Vandiver was George C. Orchard of West Plains, candidate for state treasurer.

Orchard is not popular with the Folk organization and his candidacy will be fought by the circuit attorney's friends to a finish.

Mr. Cook's representative on the state committee, J. Harry Edwards, who is chief clerk in the secretary of state's office, voted for Vandiver, thus indicating clearly the desire of the Cook forces not to interfere with Mr. Folk's convention program. The reason of this is plain. Mr. Cook does not wish to antagonize the Folk supporters and by sticking closely to the circuit attorney's wishes they hope to prevent an open or aggressive fight on the state secretary.

When the vote on the temporary chairman was announced it was moved to make it unanimous.

Judge McCaffery objected. "I want my vote to stand as it is recorded," declared the judge, with some show of warmth.

MEAT TO BURN AT THE FAIR.

Inspector Mulhall Is Kept Reasonably Busy at the Task of Incineration.

Although half the United States is bawling the fact that the meat supply is likely to be cut short by the butchers' strike, they have meat to burn at the Fair grounds.

They not only have it to burn, but they burn it; that is, City Meat Inspector Frank Mulhall has it. If on inspection it gives evidence of having reached a ripe old age, Inspector Mulhall has been making a tour of inspection to the commissary departments of the restaurants and cafes on the fair grounds and in a few instances he has discovered tainted meat. In each of these cases he poured coal oil on the meat, thus putting it off the card.

MILES TAKES HAWES' PLACE ON COMMITTEE

Former Police Board President Votes for Constable as His Successor From Eleventh District, and Thomas J. Ward Is Re-elected.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 19.—Caucuses of the delegates from the St. Louis districts today resulted in the elimination of members of the state committee as follows: Tenth District, Charles Lemp and Councilman Joseph Spiegelhalter, Jr.; Eleventh District, James P. Miles and Thomas J. Ward; Twelfth District, James J. Butler and William J. Flynn.

The election of Miles in the Eleventh marked the retirement of Harry B. Hawes from the state committee. Hawes was not a candidate. However, he voted for Miles.

Miles is a constable in Justice Callahan's court and is credited with being more of a friend of Tom Barrett than of Hawes. Ward, elected from the same district, succeeds himself. He is a staunch Hawes follower, being secretary of the Board of Police Commissioners.

The election of Charles Lemp in the Tenth district was received with much pleasure by the St. Louis crowd. The young brewer is very popular with all factions of the St. Louis Democracy. He is attending the convention in the private car of Adolphus Busch, belonging to Adolphus Busch. The fact that Stuever delegates aided in electing him shows that there is harmony among the Democrats in the so-called brewery ward, heretofore the scene of many exciting political battles.

Tenth district includes St. Louis County, and eight county men sat in the caucus. One of them moved that the election of the state committeemen be postponed until after the convention. This was defeated by a vote of 40 to 8. It was feared that a postponement might give the credentials committee a chance to change the complexion of the caucus and possibly the result.

As expected, the members chosen for the credentials committee for the three districts were Harry B. Hawes, James J. Butler and Judge McCaffery. The last named representing the Tenth. The Eleventh district caucus adopted a resolution to the effect that if Mr. Hawes is not seated on the credentials committee that it will not select another member. "The Folk committee," Mr. Hawes said, "and the district just took this means of going on record with reference to the proposition."

Thomas M. Jenkins for the committee on resolutions and Henry Henning for the committee on permanent organization. The Tenth district chose George J. Tansy for the committee on resolutions, Senator W. B. Kincaid for the committee on permanent organization, and Louis Kuns for the committee on rules.

MRS. FOLK IN CONVENTION CROWD FOR HUSBAND'S SAKE

NEW FACES IN THE CONVENTION

Old Timers of Other Days of Activity
Are Merely Spectators
Now.

THE CITY IS BRIMMING FULL

Rush for Headquarters Began Early
—Many Workers Were Up
All Night.

From a Staff Correspondent.
JEFFERSON CITY, July 19.—The Folk movement has put new faces in the Democratic state convention. When the crowd of delegates and visitors got together in the Madison House today there were men holding delegates' badges who had never before been seen by the old time politicians. Many an old timer, who has had a seat in the conventions in the past, is merely a spectator this year, while the original Folk man is holding the credentials and doing the business.

Jefferson City is packed with visitors. While everyone has been furnished with some sort of lodging, the restaurants and temporary eating places are unable to meet the demands of the hungry Democrats, and there were so many looking for breakfast this morning that the visitor had to take his turn in the lines which formed on the outside of the restaurant doors.

St. Louis has furnished about 700 delegates and visitors, while a like number, mostly Folk boosters, came from Kansas City. It is estimated that there are between 4000 and 5000 strangers at the capital today.

The lobby and parlor floor of the Madison House make up the scene of the ante-convention struggle. The quarters of every candidate are packed with blocks of slow-moving humanity, who amble from one room to the other, and engage the attention of the candidates in figuring out the dope.

The clouds of tobacco smoke on the parlor floor of the Madison are so thick that they stifle one, while the odor of liquor occasionally extends beyond the halls of the building.

Many of the convention workers remained up all night. Trains arriving today brought many additional visitors and the first hours of their stay were engaged in looking for a place to sleep. If one is satisfied with a room in a private dwelling, he can get accommodated at Jefferson City this week. If he wants a room in the Madison, where all politicians go, there will be nothing doing. The Madison has put out the S. R. O. sign.

Like Tammany at a national convention, the St. Louis Indians are particular objects of interest at the state gathering. The Indians slept for the first time in the made-to-order tent in the state house yard last night. They are not far from the river and claim that if the convention becomes too uninteresting they will all go fishing. They say they have been feeling like crappies ever since they got a blast of the Folk breeze that is now blowing in all directions.

"The Oglesby Girls," Who Are Booming "Rube" Oglesby for Railroad Commissioner

From a Staff Correspondent.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 19.—The Oglesby girls have arrived in Jefferson City. They came last night. These girls, and there are sixteen of them, one for every congressional district, are "rooting" for Rube Oglesby and the other candidates for railroad and warehouse commissioner.

The Oglesby girls have taken Jefferson City by storm. Dressed in their cool suits of pure white, they made an impressive picture as they walked from the station to the Madison House, where all of the Missouri statesmen are quartered. They were given an ovation by the crowd, while the Third Regiment Band of Kansas City played "There is Only One Girl in the World for Me."

Some of the people thought the band should have made this sixteen girls, instead of one girl, but no one complained.

The girls were taken to supper at the Methodist Church. The ride from Warrensburg, where most of them live, had made them hungry, and they ate everything in sight.

After supper Luther Hickman, Oglesby's manager, led them to Rube Oglesby's headquarters in the Madison House. After paying their respects to the Warrensburg candidate they went to the Folk headquarters and told the circuit attorney what a great man they thought he was. They pushed through the crowd and asked every man who didn't wear one of the Oglesby badge why he didn't wear one.

Nearly every man in the Madison House was wearing the Oglesby insignia before the girls departed.

The girls went to bed early last night, but they were up with the dawn this morning. They are going to talk all day for Rube Oglesby. If the delegates have any sentiment in their souls they can't vote against the Warrensburg candidate.

The beauty of the Oglesby girls from Warrensburg has not been exaggerated. The Democratic delegates pronounce them all in fact. Candidate Oglesby is being congratulated upon his superior taste in feminine beauty, and if women were an issue in the campaign for railroad and warehouse commissioner the Warrensburg man would probably get the nomination by acclamation.

gro serving ice water and lemonade to the Cook supporters, you are almost forced to believe that the secretary of state has joined the ranks of the prohibitionists. Rube Oglesby is serving roman punch. L. H. Musgrave has a pretty girl serving lemonade in his headquarters, and in nearly all of the other headquarters you can get beer and whiskey if you look all right.

Fearing that they might come in contact with strange and dangerous germs if they drank water, the Indian contingent has installed about a carload of beer in the massive St. Louis tent. And if you don't wear a Parker badge there is nothing doing.

WEARING a heavy plug hat that is covered with fur, J. West Goodwin, the veteran Sedalia editor, appears to be one of the warmest members of the state convention. When Goodwin arrived at the Madison last Sunday night he stopped at the door and rapped vigorously with his cane.

"What do you want?" yelled the clerk. "Want to know if I can come in," said Goodwin.

Goodwin hasn't missed a state convention of the Democracy in the last 34 years and he says that the present one, in his opinion, will make the others look like amateur productions.

SIDELIGHTS ON THE CONVENTION

—BY STEPHEN O'GRADY.

JEFFERSON CITY, July 19.—John W. Jamison, cashier of the bank at Rich Hill, literally waded through three miles of water to cast a vote for Sam B. Cook. It was in the primary election in Rich Hill about a month ago, Jamison stayed over night at Butler, the county seat of Bates County. A heavy rain caused the Missouri river to overflow. It was the day of the primaries and Jamison had to be there. If he was not he feared the opposition might take everything in sight. He started out in a boat but at the opposite side of the river the boat struck shallow water. Jamison did not turn back toward Butler. He got out and waded to dry land, and got to Rich Hill in time not only to vote, but to get all his friends to do likewise. He is delegate to the convention.

THE "Indians" will sleep in a tent that has been pitched in the lowest section of the yard adjoining the state house. It is fully 100 feet below the level of the street and is surrounded on all sides by hills. Getting to this tent is an easy matter, for if an Indian is unable to walk he can simply put his feet out and slide down. But getting up the hill in the morning—that's the point that is causing the boys uneasiness.

THE St. Louis crowd brought bright buttons of Parker, decorated in ribbons of red, white and blue. They are the prettiest campaign buttons yet seen and every St. Louisian wears one.

COLIN M. SELPH is on the ground with 10,000 pamphlets describing the beauties of the Exposition. Selph says that there will be no free invitation to the delegates.

"If they come to see us they will have to pay," said Mr. Selph.

"That's a slam at Missouri Democracy," said one of the delegates. "Didn't you give passes to the Roosevelt bunch at Chicago?"

"Yes," said Selph, "but we owed that Roosevelt bunch four million."

WHAT are you expecting here?" asked one of the delegates of Harry B. Hawes.

"Fair treatment, a square deal," said Hawes. "I'll say this, however, if I am to be buried I want a respectable funeral."

HALF dozen ladies, among them Mrs. Hawes, Mrs. Sam B. Cook and Miss Williams, daughter of the state treasurer, were sitting in the Hawes headquarters today. Harry Hawes met Congressman W. D. Vandiver on the outside.

"Come in here, Van," said Hawes. "I want you to meet the ladies."

Vandiver, much embarrassed, was brought into the presence of the ladies. Every woman was wearing a long banner proclaiming her a supporter of Sam B. Cook. Vandiver was introduced. Each lady shook his hand and then, doubling her fist, she shook it at the Folk manager. Vandiver swears he'll get even with Hawes.

THE barber shops had their best day of the year yesterday. They were closed Sunday and everyone needed a shave. The line-up at the tonsorial establishments in the early morning equaled the procession at a country postoffice when the mail comes in.

THE Elk clubroom is a popular place with delegates and visitors. There is a rule up there that visitors shall not be allowed to spend money. There is only one way of gaining admission, and that is by going in with a member of the Elks. When on the inside the Elks buy the drinks and pay for them. Delegates have begged and pleaded to be allowed to buy a drink. The Jefferson City Elks have steadfastly refused to grant these requests. They say they are afraid they might lose their charter if they allowed a stranger to spend his money.

THOSE who have visited the World's Fair are impressed with a sign that hangs from a restaurant tent near the Madison House. The sign indicates that the temporary eating place is the Outside Inn.

GENUINE Kentucky hospitality is being shown in the Hawes headquarters. As soon as you enter the door you can detect the odor of mint, and once you get in the adjoining room there is a gentleman there who more than shows you that the St. Louis candidate is provided with the real thing. Sam Cook has a long badge of white, which reminds you of the badge of the W. C. T. U. and white you enter his headquarters you see a sign.

MRS. FOLK PROVES TACTFUL FACTOR

Takes Husband's Place in Greeting Friends at Headquarters During His Absence.

HAS A SMILE FOR EVERYONE

Society Has Already Made Her Hostess and Has Welcomed Her Cordially.

From a Staff Correspondent.
JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 19.—"Every time I see a man with a Folk badge I feel just like rushing up to him and shaking hands," Mrs. Joseph W. Folk said last evening.

"They look so loyal," she added enthusiastically.

Mrs. Folk naturally is taking a deep interest in the crisis of her distinguished husband's campaign. She came to the capitol with him Sunday. They are making their home at the residence of Mrs. J. W. Gordon, on Main street, Sunday evening and Monday morning Mrs. Folk remained at the Gordon home, while her husband shook hands with visitors from many counties in his campaign headquarters.

Monday afternoon, however, she resolved to get closer to the stirring situation which means so much to her. She joined her husband at the Madison in his handshaking. Mrs. Folk was received with queenly honors at the hotel and the visitors from the country districts, many without coats, some with big boots, were doubly delighted to receive a gentle handshake from the hands of the wife of the attorney as well as a smiling "glad to see you" from her husband.

Mrs. Folk was glowed in white. She looked quite girlish and smiled delightedly on the delegates who were fortunate enough to call at the headquarters while she was there.

"I am glad I went to the headquarters," she said subsequently, sitting by her husband's side on the portico of the Gordon residence. "I am very much interested in the campaign, naturally, and in the coming convention."

She Makes Suggestions.
"Of course, I hope everything will turn out just as we want," she looked admiringly at Mr. Folk. "You ought to have a larger sign over the entrance to the headquarters, Joseph," she said to Mr. Folk. "I had difficulty in finding the small one you have there now, and then I think you ought to have more badges," she added.

Mrs. Folk's manner of saying this indicated that she had been closely observing the ribbons worn by the delegates and visitors. Last night Mrs. Folk returned to the Folk headquarters, and not only assisted her husband in shaking hands, but took his place for a half hour while he attended a conference in another part of the hotel.

She had a pleasant word and a merry smile for the men from the cities and the country, for the polished visitors and the callers from the outback. Gov. Dockery was among the callers Mrs. Folk greeted during the evening.

Mrs. Folk is attracting much attention in Jefferson City, particularly on the social side.

Is Already the Hostess.
Jefferson City society, apparently, has already made her the hostess of the mansion on Jan. 1, 1905.

"Wonder what Mrs. Folk will do after she reaches the mansion?" society inquires. "Will she revive the social splendor of the Stephens administration or will she conduct the executive mansion as quietly as it has been conducted during the present regime?"

Mrs. Folk is not ready to satisfy society's curiosity on this point. "It is very kind of Jefferson City people," she says, "to display that interest, but it is a little early for me to discuss that subject yet."

"She will wait until the people have heard from first," interjected Mr. Folk, who was an interested listener. Mrs. Folk is young, vivacious and musical and, with her as the mansion's mistress, it is generally believed here that the social side of the administration would reflect as much credit on the state as her husband's most ardent admirers think his conduct of the governor's office would.

Mrs. Folk will attend the convention. She will not be present at every session, but she says she will make a point to be in the hall of the House of Representatives when Mr. Folk is placed in nomination. Mrs. Folk does not say that she expects her husband to be nominated or that she expects him to be elected. But her smile of satisfaction when she discusses the convention or campaign is so real that no words are necessary on this point.

"Irish" Regiment Works Hard.
Special to the Post-Dispatch.
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 19.—Under a blinding sun the men of the Seventh regiment drilled yesterday afternoon and then participated in the evening parade. It was a strenuous day for the "Irish" regiment, but not a man flinched, although many were on the verge of collapse. Lieut. Callahan of Company B suffered slight prostration from heat in the afternoon and was removed to the hospital in the evening. Excellent discipline prevails in the ranks. Not a man has yet been placed in the officers' wives will arrive in camp Thursday for the governor's day ceremonies.

HAD NO MONEY, FINED $10

Confederate Veteran and U. S. Soldier Got Into Trouble by Listening to a Stranger's Voice.

W. J. Hird, aged 42, a Confederate veteran, late of Columbus Ga., but still later of 4131 Olive street, and Sergeant William Manley of the United States heavy artillery, stationed at the World's Fair, were fined $10 each in the City Hall Police Court Tuesday because, as they say, they accepted the hospitality of a comrade in arms. Not having the $10, they were sent back to jail. According to Hird, he was returning from the racetrack yesterday afternoon when he met Sergeant Manley, accompanied by another soldier, whose name neither man knows. Hird invited the two soldiers into the Jefferson Hotel to have a drink. They accepted the invitation and later they strolled down Olive street to Broadway. When they reached Broadway the unidentified soldier invited his companions into a restaurant at 8 South Broadway for dinner. The invitation was accepted and the three men ate dinner. The bill for the three meals was $1.45, but before it came time to pay the bill the unidentified man left the table and dashed out of the restaurant. The proprietor, Andrew Black, demanded that the bill be paid, but neither man had that much money. Black called Patrolman Lane, and Hird and Manley were arrested and locked up.

PIKE FIGHT OVER A HANDKERCHIEF

Wife of a Fancy Worker Takes Husband's Part and Hurts Paperweights Effectively.

Justice Carroll.

Justice Carroll, sitting on the bench in the Chestnut Street Tribunal, today handed down a $500 decision in a case which has attracted much public interest.

A few days ago Carlo Trevis, who embroidered handkerchiefs in front of one of the Pike concessions, with the assistance of his wife, was accused by Philip Franklin, a former friend, who claims that Trevis owes him money. In an uncontested language Mr. Franklin ordered Mr. Trevis to surrender his handkerchiefs and call the debt square. Mr. Trevis indignantly refused.

In the course of the ensuing conversation Mrs. Trevis entered the engagement by hurling two paper weights at Mr. Franklin. One of them struck him on the foot, and the temperature of the language rose appreciably.

The next move was when Mr. Trevis vaulted over his embroidery booth and he and Mr. Franklin began to fight. Jefferson stands arrested them.

The case was continued in police court several times, and when it was brought before Judge Tracy today, Franklin was the aggressor and fined him. Trevis was discharged.

JAPANESE DIGNITARIES DINE. Dinner at Tyrolean Alps Is Enjoyed by Exhibitors.

More than 30 guests, all of whom were Japanese, sat down at a dinner in the Tyrolean Alps Monday night. The spread was served in the dining room on the second floor of the Town Hall building, and was quite an elaborate affair. Hot table and room were profusely decorated with flowers. J. K. Williams, president of the Japanese Exhibit Association, presided, and he and the other directors of the association were the hosts. The guests included Baron Matsudaira, commissioner general of Japan to the World's Fair; Commissioner Oba and the other members of the board; K. Uchida, Japanese consul general at New York; Prof. Takamini of New York; and Mr. and Mrs. K. Imahashi of New York. Mrs. Imahashi being the representative there of the Tyrolean Alps. The dinner was a very pleasant one, and the conversation and speeches were in Japanese.

On the terrace of the Tyrolean Alps, on Monday evening, a dinner was held. The guests included Baron Matsudaira, commissioner general of Japan to the World's Fair; Commissioner Oba and the other members of the board; K. Uchida, Japanese consul general at New York; Prof. Takamini of New York; and Mr. and Mrs. K. Imahashi of New York. Mrs. Imahashi being the representative there of the Tyrolean Alps. The dinner was a very pleasant one, and the conversation and speeches were in Japanese.

Run Down by Motorcycle.

Fred Wells, colored, of 208 North Ninth street, riding a motorcycle south on Ninth street, Monday night, was run over by a motor car, 4 years old, of 913 Chambers street, who was playing in the street near his home. The boy received bruises and cuts on the right thigh, both knees and the right foot. The negro was arrested. The motor car was charged with driving without a license was made against him.

Recognized Broker's Employee.

Arthur Hennings, an employee of a ticket broker on Market street, was fined $100 in city hall police court Tuesday on the charge of disturbing the peace of J. W. Austin, assistant to the ticket broker, at the office at Union Station. Hennings took a ticket from Austin's office, signed it and handed it in for validation. Austin recognized him as the employee of a ticket broker and took up the ticket. Hennings grabbed for the ticket, got it and the ticket was afterward found on the floor.

EITHER PAY UP OR SIGN NOTHING

Chestnut Street Tribunal Hands Down Wisdom in Connection With a $500 Decision.

Justice Carroll.

If a man take his pen in hand and put his name to anything he should pay what the thing calls for. This is how Justice Robert J. Carroll looks at it. And it makes no difference to him if the name was put there in connection with a gambling transaction.

He ruled to this effect Tuesday in a suit brought by Lawrence Varner against Alex. A. Eberson to collect $500 on a draft. Eberson bought the draft from William Doffer. It was made payable to Doffer by Eberson.

The history of the draft, as given by Varner, was that he met Doffer at Sheephead Bay. Doffer needed money. Varner advanced him $500 on the draft, which was made out to Doffer. When he returned to St. Louis and presented the draft for payment it was sent back marked "no funds."

Justice Carroll called up Eberson's attorney and asked him what the defense would be. He was told that it would be that the draft was given in connection with a gambling transaction. Without hearing Eberson's testimony in support of this defense the justice decided for the plaintiff, giving him a judgment for the entire amount sued for.

"When a man puts his name to anything he ought to pay," was his comment. Eberson's attorney appealed.

Eberson's version is that he was on his way to Liverpool, and at Sheephead Bay he got into a poker game with Doffer and others, and lost, and when he had no more money put up the draft, on which he afterwards stopped payment.

WEDNESDAY IS COAL MEN'S DAY

500 Members of National, State and Interstate Associations Will Assemble at the Fair.

Wednesday is coal men's day at the Fair, and an announcement conflicts somewhat with that of the weather bureau announcement that the day won't be so warm as yesterday. With 500 coal men in the city the weather will have little chance to cool off.

The coal men, members of the National Interstate and State Coal Association, will meet at 9 o'clock at the Planters' Hotel, where they will be welcomed by members of the St. Louis association. They will go to the Fair in the afternoon.

A band will meet them at the Lindell entrance, where the formal exercises will take place. There will be addresses by prominent coal men from different parts of the country. The next day the coal men will have a business session at the Planters' Hotel.

THREATENED BEER FAMINE

San Francisco Brewers to Strike and All in State May Be Called Out.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 19.—At a joint meeting of Brewers' Unions Nos. 1 and 5 held in this city last night it was decided by unanimous vote that the brewers of the state will strike on Wednesday.

At a meeting of the executive committee to be held today it will be decided whether or not to call out all brewers throughout the state.

Little Josie Camarita and Scene of Her Attempted Flight Without Wings

JOSIE CAMARITA.

BABY TRIES TO FLY, STOPPED BY EARTH TO SEE THE FAIR

Little Girl Who Would Be a Bird Is Unhurt in Her First Attempt.

Three-year-old Josie Camarita now knows she is not a bird and cannot fly as birds do, yet she is not wholly displeased with her experience in trying.

Little Josie saw a bird flying close to the porch of her upstairs home at 326 North Eighth street, and she wanted the bird. Reaching out to fly after it, she fell headlong over the railing and down 25 feet to the ground.

When her mother, Antonia Camarita, looked over the railing, expecting to see the unconscious form of her child, the little one was smiling and looking after the bird and uttering something which sounded very much like, "See, see." She was not in the least injured.

The mother rushed down the stairway and clasped the child in her arms. Josie was carried back to the veranda and into the house. She was astonished that she had not been hurt. She was not hurt at all, but within a very few minutes she was out again, and again was climbing on the railing, looking over to the ground. She did not again venture a flight through the air.

Neighbors who witnessed the fall say that the little girl turned over once in her fall, so that instead of alighting on her head, she struck the ground upon her right side. There is not a mark or bruise upon the child's body.

SANTIAGO BATTLE PRODUCES A HERO

Louis Desloge Saves Capt. William Peterson, Who Had Fainted, From Death in the Water.

THRILLING EVENT ON THE PIKE

Hea tProved Too Much for a "Naval Exhibit" Employee, Mr. Desloge's Action Was His Salvation.

Unlike the real naval battle at Santiago, where Admiral Schley led the American fleet, with the flagship Brooklyn, to victory, sinking and disabling the ships of the Spanish fleet with the loss of but few of his own men and no damage done to his ships, the Brooklyn, commanded by the admiral, was almost irreparably damaged and its captain nearly drowned in the miniature realistic reproduction of the San Diego fight at the Naval Exhibit on the Pike Monday night at the Fair.

The attraction opened with target practice, both by the ships and torpedo boats. The American fleet, in number, was the same as in the real battle, and the Spanish fleet was also represented. The American fleet was maneuvering before the harbor of Santiago when a merchantman endeavoring to run the blockade was captured. Then the Spanish ships steamed out of the harbor and the battle began.

Very Realistic.

The battle was so realistic that many in the stands forgot that it was only a reproduction, and feared that some of the Spanish shots directed at the American fleet might pass over and hit them.

The battle continued with terrific firing, both from the ships and the forts, for some time, and then one of the Spanish ships caught fire and sank. One after another they caught fire and returned to the fort, followed by the victorious fleet. Finally the Spanish fleet was completely destroyed. The little ships are actual models of the great men-of-war and are manipulated by a man concealed in the hull of the ship. An electric motor furnishes the power, which he governs, and he also guides the ship and fires the gun. The guns make a very loud noise, even louder than a giant firecracker.

Just at the climax of the conflict William Peterson, succumbed to the heat and the top of the vessel off and fell unconscious in the water, which is several feet deep in the basin.

Mr. Desloge.

The great audience was excited and at first took it for granted that this was part of the program. They soon realized their mistake and St. Louis was privileged to be the hero who went to the rescue.

Louis Desloge of 4021 Delmar avenue, who was witnessing the magnificent scene from the water like, plunged into the water and swam to where Peterson had disappeared. While thousands looked on breathlessly, Desloge dived down and soon appeared with the body of the captain. The captain was revived and was taken to the shore. Desloge was hailed as a hero. He was placed in the detention room. They will start back to Alabama Tuesday evening.

SAYS MEN NEED GUARDIANS.

Magistrate Delivers Opinion of Those Who Starve Their Wives.

Police Magistrate Benjamin Rose of Alton believes that instances of wife abandonment are becoming too frequent in his jurisdiction, and when Roy Cox was before him Monday on the charge of leaving his wife, Ella Cox, without anything in the house to eat, the magistrate gave him a severe lecture.

The lecture was general, as well as specific, and was intended to reach the ears of any who were guilty of the offense. "Some men think nowadays," said the magistrate, "that it is a pleasure to starve a woman. It may be a pleasure to them, but it is not to the victims of their cruelty. The women should be cared for by men who have married them; they have as much right to food and shelter as the world as have the men. The truth of the matter is that there are a whole lot of men who need guardians more than do the women and children whom they are supposed to protect."

Miners Appeal to Roosevelt.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., July 19.—Two thousand coal miners gathered in mass assembly in the Springfield suburb yesterday and adopted resolutions demanding that President Roosevelt take charge of affairs in Colorado and conduct a searching investigation into the alleged outrage perpetrated upon the striking miners.

HEAD OF A GREAT STATE HOSPITAL

Uses Pe-ru-na in His Own Family as a Catarrhal Tonic.

Dr. J. F. Ensor, Postmaster of Columbus, S. C., late Superintendent and Physician in charge of State Insane Asylum at Columbia, S. C., writes:

"After using your Peruna myself for a short period, and my family having used and are now using the same with good results, and upon the information of others who have been benefited by it as a cure for catarrh and an invigorating tonic, I can cheerfully recommend it to all persons requiring so effective a remedy."

Dr. J. F. Ensor.

Hon. C. W. Butts, ex-Member of Congress from North Dakota, in a letter from Washington, D. C., says:

"That Peruna is not only a vigorous, as well as an effective tonic, but also a cure for catarrh in beyond controversy. It is already established by its use by the thousands who have been benefited by it. I cannot too highly express my appreciation of its excellence."

Dr. R. Robbins, Muskegon, I. T., writes: "Peruna is the best medicine I know of for coughs and to strengthen a weak stomach and to give appetite. Besides prescribing it for catarrh, I have ordered it for weak and debilitated people, and have not had a patient but said it helped him. It is an excellent medicine and it is so many cases."

"I have a large practice, and have a chance to prescribe your Peruna. I hope you may live long to do good to the sick and suffering."

Only the weak need a tonic. People are never weak except from some good cause. One of the obscure causes of weakness and the one oftenest overlooked is catarrh. Catarrh inflames the mucous membrane and causes the blood plasma to escape through the mucous membrane in the form of mucus. This discharge of mucus is the same as the loss of blood. It produces weakness.

Peruna stops the catarrh and prevents the discharge of mucus. This is why Peruna is called a tonic. Peruna does not give strength by stimulating the nervous system a little.

It gives strength by preserving the mucous membrane against leakage. It gives strength by converting the blood fluids and preventing their draining away in mucus discharges.

Peruna Contains No Narcotics.

One reason why Peruna has found permanent use in so many homes is that it contains no narcotic of any kind. Peruna is perfectly harmless. It can be used any length of time without acquiring a drug habit. Peruna does not produce temporary results. It is permanent in its effect. It has no bad effect upon the system, and gradually eliminates catarrh by removing the cause of catarrh. There are a multitude of cases where Peruna has been used off and on for twenty years. Such a thing could not be possible if Peruna contained any drugs of a narcotic nature.

President Donnelly to Give Them One More Chance to End the Strike and Will Then Seek to Force Them to Come to Him.

SYMPATHETIC WALKOUT IS HELD OFF AWAITING ANSWER

The Men Say They Have Plenty of Money to Support Their Men for Months and Will Never Surrender Except on Their Terms.

ONLY 10 PER CENT OF USUAL FORCE WORKING
The meat strike at the various packing centers is still effective. The packers in Chicago, Kansas City, Sioux City, Omaha and St. Paul say that they are daily putting more men into work and increasing their output. But, taking their own statements as a basis of calculation, not more than 10 per cent of their normal force is at work. Meanwhile, the available meat supply is being rapidly lessened. The restaurants throughout the country have raised their prices on all meat dishes as a result of the advance by wholesalers and retailers.

CHICAGO, July 19.—A final effort to secure as a basis for arbitration in the stock yards strike an agreement from the packers that all employees on strike shall be reinstated within a specified time was made today by President Donnelly of the butcher workmen.

In a letter to J. Ogden Armour, President Donnelly declared that if this concession is not made, a sympathetic strike of 12,000 to 14,000 other workmen at the yards will be called. It will then be a fight to a finish. The packers continue to hire new men to take the places of the strikers. They say they will be able to operate their plants, even if the sympathetic strike is called. Operations at the yards have reached 50 per cent of the normal business in the large packing houses, and the announcement was made that the output in all departments will be increased daily.

The letter to Mr. Armour was signed by President Donnelly and informed the employers in substance that the butcher workmen have conceded everything possible, and that, if the packers consider the welfare of the men whom they have hired since the strike began of more importance than that of the strikers, an appeal for assistance will be made to all union men employed at the yards.

The strike leaders will remain at the Sherman House until a reply is received from the packers. In the event it is unfavorable, the firemen and engineers at the yards, it is said, will be first appealed to for a sympathetic strike. These unions, the strike leaders expect, will be followed by the plumbers, steam fitters and other trades.

The union men say they have $100,000 with which to prosecute the fight. Despite this statement there is much suffering among the men, because of the union's delay in paying benefits. "Violence is increasing, but no serious rioting has occurred."

The city sales of the Post-Dispatch are greater than combined city sales of any three other St. Louis newspapers.

WAGONS TOLD TO COME BACK
Teamsters Can Enter Fair Only Early or Very Late.

The department of works at the Fair is slowly and laboriously working out the problem of the control of wagons. The order issued was that no wagons were to be permitted to enter the ground between 8 in the morning and 11 in the night. It was issued a few days ago, and has been the occasion of much confusion and many heated telephone conversations. Every day wagons come to different entrances and admission asked. If it is later than 8 o'clock they are told to go away and come back at 11 o'clock the next night. The driver or somebody else interested in getting the wagon into the grounds is usually asked to wait until 9 o'clock to get off the grounds.

Circuit Judges Reassigned.

As a result of a meeting of the circuit judges, the following term assignments have been made: Judge Foster to the criminal division, No. 1, until the first Monday in October, 1904. Judge Taylor to remain at criminal division No. 9 until the first Monday in January, 1905. Judge McDonald, to the juvenile division during that period; Judge McDonald, to civil division, No. 11, which will be vacant by the transfer of Judge Foster from the first Monday in October until otherwise assigned. According to the usual custom of alternating service, Judge Hough would have been transferred to the juvenile division, but division No. 1. It is said he expressed a wish not to be assigned to the criminal division and that Judge Taylor volunteered to remain.

HAIGHT RESIGNATION IS UP

Exposition Executive Committee Will Act Upon It at Today's Meeting.

The Exposition executive committee will this afternoon take final action on the resignation of Lieut. C. Sidney Haight, military aide to President Francis. Lieut. Haight tendered his resignation several days ago, but aside from a little informal talk, the executive committee has not considered it. Lieut. Haight and Exposition officials refused to discuss the resignation, but it is understood to have been caused by letters written by Lieut. Haight giving offense to the colored troops from Illinois and New York. Lieut. Haight is said to have stated that he wrote the letters under instructions. This statement gave rise to the belief that there is still another Exposition official involved and that there may be another resignation forthcoming at this afternoon's session of the committee. Under whose instructions he was acting, Lieut. Haight has refused to state.

COAT MAY SHOW HIS IDENTITY

Garment Like That of a Waiter on Body Found in River by Fishermen.

The body of a man without papers or other means of identification save a waiter's black coat, was found at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday morning in the Mississippi river at the foot of St. George street. The discovery was made by Joseph H. Anderson and Joseph Badursack, fishermen, of 1135 South Third street. The body was floating on the surface of the water a few feet from the shore. The two men towed it to the bank and notified the police, who had it sent to the morgue.

The waiter's coat, a short black one of light material, is the only identifying article about the body or the clothing. The trousers are black; the shoes are heavy and laced. The shirt is white and the underclothing is pink. There was $3 in one of the trouser pockets. The man's age was about 35, his height 5 feet 8 inches and his weight 150 pounds. His hair was black and his face smooth shaven. The coat of the body shows that it was in the water for several days.

DAISY LEITER SINGLE BECAUSE FAMILY BARS POOR MAN SHE LOVES

MISS DAISY LEITER.

Heiress to Millions Has Turned Down Princes and Dukes For an English Officer Who Has Neither Money Nor Title.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. CHICAGO, July 19.—Has the happiness of Daisy Leiter, belle of three continents and heiress to millions, been sacrificed to the social and political ambitions of members of her family? Has the girl whose beauty and charms have won hearts in Chicago, Washington, London and far off India refused all the flattering matrimonial proposals she has received because she is determined to marry an English officer who won her heart in Simla, the town that Kipling sang of? Society gossips who have wondered "Why is Daisy Leiter single?" are now answering these questions. A romantic story concerning the daughter of the man who made so many millions in Chicago is being told, and it is believed by friends of Miss Leiter.

In Washington, London, and here in Chicago, where Miss Leiter is less known than in the two capitals, her friends believe that she has at last found the solution of her determination to remain in a state of single blessedness.

Fond Mamma's Fear Effect of Story.

Fond papas and mamma's who have social aspirations for their daughters hear the story of Miss Leiter's love affair with the fear that it may influence their children. Debutantes with a romantic turn of mind are saying that they would do as Miss Leiter did, and are declaring that she is "just too lovely."

The story which has so stirred society is that on her first trip to India, in 1900, Miss Leiter fell in love with and aid-de-camp of her brother-in-law, Lord Curzon, viceroy of India. Unluckily for both the aid-de-camp had neither title nor wealth. That made no difference to Miss Leiter, however. She had seen enough of noblemen, millionaires and statesmen to prevent her being dazzled by the things which the accepted story did not have. But with the other

A BACK LICK Settled the Case With Her.

Many great discoveries have been made by accident and things better than gold mines have been found in this way; for example, when even the accidental discovery that coffee is the real cause of one's sickness proves of most tremendous value because it locates the cause and the person has then a chance to get well.

"For over 25 years," says a Missouri woman, "I suffered untold agonies in my stomach, and even the best physicians disagreed as to the cause without giving me any permanent help, different ones saying it was gastritis, indigestion, neuritis, etc. I dragged along from year to year, always half sick, until finally I gave up all hopes of ever being well again."

"When taking dinner with a friend one day she said she had a new drink, which turned out to be Postum, and I liked it so well I told her I thought I would stop coffee for awhile and use it, which I did. 'So for three months we had Postum in place of coffee without ever having one of my old spells, but was always healthy and vigorous instead.'"

"Husband kept saying he was convinced it was coffee that caused those spells, but even then I wouldn't believe it until one day we got out of Postum, and as we lived two miles from town I thought to use the coffee we had in the house."

"The result of a week's use of coffee was that I had another terrible spell of agony and distress, proving that it was the coffee and nothing else. That settled it, and I said good-bye to coffee forever, and since then Postum alone has been our hot mealtime drink."

"My friends all say I am looking worlds better and my complexion is much improved. All the other members of our family have been benefited, too, by Postum in place of the old drink, coffee." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

Ten days' trial of Postum in place of coffee or tea is the wise thing for every coffee-drinker. Such a trial tells the exact truth often where coffee is not suspected. Look in each package for the famous little book, "The Road to Wellville."

Yet, Sad to Say, Scott's Friends Cannot Raise the Three Bucks and He Has No Liberty.

Because they failed to figure on the fees due the sheriff's office, W. C. Payne of Warrenton, Va., candidate for vice-president on the Negro Liberty ticket, and two of his friends did not succeed in securing the release of W. T. Scott, the candidate for the presidency on the same ticket, who was locked up in the county jail at Belleville a few days ago for failure to pay an old fine.

Payne came to Belleville yesterday afternoon in company with two friends of the imprisoned candidate, and brought with him, it is said, $100.00, the sum, certain still due the state. He forgot to count, however, the sheriff's fees due for serving the papers on Scott the last time, and was consequently $3 short of the required amount.

Scott's friends failed to get the extra $3 and he is still in duress.

He still maintains that his arrest is the result of political chicanery, and was merely a plot to kill him politically.

SIDE LIGHTS ON THE FAIR.

BY ROSE MARION

HARRY FRANCIS GRAY is the leader of the "whitewashers" of the Administration building. Harry Francis is a messenger boy, 17 feet tall and red headed. Like the rest of the messengers he wears long trousers. In them he looks like "Buster Brown" in overall. Because of the length of his trousers, Harry Francis feels privileged to shed his coat. It's not many things in the way of duty that Harry Francis will neglect. He made a record for himself the first week that he was on duty by demanding of President Francis, "Do you work here?" when that gentleman attempted to ascend to his own office.

He hasn't changed in his way of doing. He was sent to deliver a letter. The letter was addressed to "Mr. Juan Renteria, Mexican pavilion," but the man who gave it to Harry said: "Deliver this at the French pavilion." Harry tried to do as he was bid. Mr. Delany at the French building told him that he had made a mistake and the little fellow started off, but his sense of duty sent him back quickly.

"They said I must leave this at the French pavilion, and this is the French pavilion, isn't it?"

Carefully M. Delany explained that the address on the envelope was that of the Mexican pavilion. Then he went to the door with the boy and showed him the Mexican flag flying over the Fair home of the republic of the South.

The boy went as he was directed, but with the air of one who is acting against his own counsel.

ASSHES have never counted for much in her life. She has always paid her railroad fare and has never known the privileges of the makers of laws in Jefferson City.

Because she is of French descent she went to the Fair on the 14th of July. Her family had been invited to the ceremonies on the 14th of July, and there she spent the latter part of the day.

As she told of the singing of M. Gauthier to her family, she showed the source of her own pride in the Trianon gardens.

"Those who had ordinary white tickets were not allowed to enter the Trianon gardens," she added.

"How did you pass muster?" asked her brother who had an ordinary white ticket.

"I was all right," she said. "They were skeptical about that at first. One guard showed it to the other. The last one pronounced it all right and we went in."

Quick with questions was the brother. When all the answers were given he knew that the "slip" that his sister had used as an admission card to the Trianon was a World's Fair pass. Also that the Jefferson guard had not collected it, and that it had been voted a position in the souvenirs of the celebration of the Fall of the Bastille.

And it was worth 50 good cents.

SHE was tired and she was sleepy. The cushions in that sacred part of the historical exhibit, devoted to the Daughters of the American Revolution looked soft. She pined them on a couch for a head rest. Then she slumbered as do only the tired doers of the Fair.

The Jefferson guard on duty was startled by a snore. It came from the D. A. R. room. He knew that it wasn't the sound of snoring; he feared that battles were being fought over in that chamber, but the sight of the sleeping woman caused him to change his mind.

He conveyed the news to Miss Florence Hayward, who has charge of the historical exhibit.

"I'll wake her up," said Miss Hayward. She tried. The woman did not care to be awakened. She wanted to know why she shouldn't sleep there if she liked. Miss Hayward didn't contradict. She's too diplomatic for that.

"Those Kodak kinks are so dreadful," she said. "It would be just like one of them to come in here and make a snapshot of you. You wouldn't like that?"

Of course she wouldn't. Within three minutes the woman was on her way to her own state building, and the cushions were back in their places.

BOOKS concerning lists of persons of importance at the Fair should be distributed among the employees of the same, and they should be made to place those names in their unforgettable cupboards.

What do you think of this. Into the rooms of the official photographer walked a man who wanted to take home with him a picture of the president of the board of lady managers.

"Do you a picture of Mrs. Manning?" he asked.

The young man in charge looked interrogation points.

"Who is Mrs. Manning?" he asked. The man explained and the records were searched.

Those who listened said things about farmers and men that didn't know where they got on, but the picture-wanting man merely remarked:

"That's nothing! I heard a man ask President Francis his middle initial not two days ago."

HOW can you make the army equal the navy? Impossible unless you produce like results from each. It's been done, and you needn't guess how. Just continue reading.

A man who knows men walked into the inside inn. Just across from him he saw a white-haired man with a white mustache, a Panama hat and light clothes. The recognizing part of his brain was at work at once. The figure was familiar. He was sure of the straight back and the wise eyes.

"Dewey," said he to the hotel clerk. "No, Miles," corrected the h. c.

The general had served as the double of the great admiral.

WHAT would you say if a man jingled the coins in his pocket twice, then picked out a gold one, looked at it casually and announced the hour, the minute and the second of the day?

Magic, perhaps. Or shinnagan. Or bosh. Words would probably depend upon your belief in things beyond the ordinary.

M. Leroy, the Paris jeweler in the Manufactures building, could do that if he pleased.

In a gold piece the size of one of our own double eagles he has a perfect watch. It tells the time, although the gold piece hasn't been stretched to hold it.

It doesn't take much energy to turn the little stem winder, but it does take a great deal to find the same on the side of the coin.

The watch which was given Miss Roosevelt, and is one of the wonders of the "Manufactures" of the Manufactures building.

"I was the most enjoyable day of my life," said the boy at the restaurant table just beyond me. He was talking to his mother and his aunt and his other relatives relative to the number of four. They were from the South. New York was their subject. One woman was telling of the glorious time Uncle Charlie's wife had when she accompanied her husband on a buying tour to New York.

She told of silk dresses and fine hats that had been presented to Uncle Charlie's wife by the dealers.

"They just took her through and let her pick what she wanted."

That sounded so delightful to the rest of the women that they wished they could exchange places with Uncle Charlie's wife for just one day.

"THERE has been a wreck," said the station master at the end of the line of the only go-some- place thing on wheels at the Fair—the miniature railway.

"Anybody hurt?" asked a prospective ticket buyer.

"Not a soul," answered the ticketer. "Only the building that threw the wheel off the track. Train was delayed five minutes, but I think I'll catch up next trip if it doesn't have to stop to water."

One woman I have seen has bested the problem. Her collar wasn't a collar. It was a kind of a ruffing. Nothing higher than the narrow neckband of her bodice touched her neck. Edging out from that was a narrow plaited ruffle one and one-quarter inches in width. The ruffing flared away from her throat and gave the effect of dressiness that stocks are supposed to contribute. The woman looked happy, and there was no suggestion of wiltedness.

ENRAGED PYGMIES ATTACK VISITOR

H. S. Gibbons of Durango, Colo., Photographed Them, But Gave No Tip.

HE WAS PURSUED AND BEATEN

Money Would Have Been An Effective Weapon, But He Wouldn't Use It.

The African pygmies at the Fair took to the warpath late Monday because a visitor took a photograph of one of them and would not indemnify them to the extent that they deemed meet.

They gave the photographer a scare that he will remember after all his other experiences at the Fair have been forgotten. They attacked him and were handling him roughly and were attempting to take everything he had away from him when white men rescued him.

The photographer was H. S. Gibbons of Durango, Colo. He approached the wire fence inclosing the pygmy kraal and focused a pocket folding kodak on Letuno of the Bacuba tribe, one of the big Africans brought over with the pygmies.

Letuno tried to get behind a post, but Gibbons snapped him. With a yell of rage Letuno scaled the wire fence and catching up a jagged stone rushed at Gibbons, demanding money. Gibbons gave him a nickel, but that did not appease him. He threw it on the ground and stamped on it and raised Gibbons' kodak. Gibbons laid on to the kodak and the two wrestled for its possession. A large crowd quickly surrounded them. Letuno fought and chattered incessantly. Each attempt of Gibbons to explain in a language which the black man could not understand brought fresh fustianations of wrath.

Money the Only

Effective Weapon.

It was plain that nothing but money or a fight would meet the African's idea of what the occasion called for, since the other black men were getting excited and those in charge of them did not attempt to control them. Gibbons was advised to raise his bid for peace, but instead he wrestled the kodak from the grasp of Letuno and tried to get away. Letuno, still carrying the big stone, barred the way and tried to get his hand in Gibbons' pocket. Gibbons broke away from him and took refuge in the trading post across the road. Letuno followed him in and all of the other Africans ran, chattering, across and with Letuno surrounded Gibbons. They began to snatch at what he carried and what he wore. He pushed one of them away and they fell upon him and began to beat him.

The trading post was filled with men, women and children, and there was a good deal of excitement and alarm. Several white men rushed to the assistance of Gibbons. He was pulled out of the way into a corner and the Africans were cuffed and kicked out of the building. Yelling with rage, they made a rush and tried to get back into the building, but were stopped by a wall of white men.

Refused His

Small Change.

Gibbons wanted peace badly. He offered all of his small change for it, but the Africans wanted more war or a lot of money. One of the men in charge of them by pushing and striking them, forced them back into the kraal. Gibbons was let out through the back of the building. He tried to get back into the trading post and made haste to put the Anthropological reservation. The trouble was caused by an order issued by Dr. W. J. Montrose, chief of the department of anthropology, directing that no photographs were to be taken except on permits from his office. John Condoile, the educated African, who is their interpreter, explained it to them and they agreed that they would sell be parties to the breaking of the rule unless they were well paid for it. No warning signs had been placed so that visitors do not know the risk they run in attempting to take pictures. The first was the third which has occurred with a few days. In each instance the attacked photographer has taken refuge in the trading post. Letuno tried to slay one photographer with a butcher knife. J. W. Benham, proprietor of the trading post, said he would demand that signs be put up and that a guard be stationed at the Africans' kraal to protect white people.

Second Attempt of Sol Mayer and Miss Hirsch to Elope Successful at Alton.

Not until Tuesday did friends of Sol Mayer of 4444 West Belle place and Miss Rose Hirsch of 6188 Fairmount avenue learn of their marriage in Alton Monday. Prevented by relatives in their first attempt to wed in East St. Louis last January, they made plans for their second trial so successfully that their parents did not learn of their intention until informed Monday night that the marriage had taken place.

Monday morning Miss Hirsch announced that she intended spending the day at the Fair. Mayer told his employers he would be busy with out-of-town customers. The two met at an arranged and went to Alton, where they were married by Justice Nathan. They wired the news to an intimate friend of Mayer and the announcement of the wedding followed.

They returned to St. Louis Monday evening and are now at 4444 West Belle place, where they will live for the present.

Last January Mayer and Miss Hirsch went to East St. Louis intending to be married, but relatives learning of their plans in advance, prevented the ceremony.

HIBERNIANS IN ST. LOUIS TODAY 20,000 STRONG

International Convention at Music Hall Preceded by Solemn High Mass at St. Patrick's Church, Celebrated by Archbishop Glennon.

PLAN VIGOROUS CAMPAIGN

AGAINST RACE CARICATURE

They Declare the Irish People Have Been Done a Great Injustice, Particularly on the Stage—Will Be in Session Three Days.

One thousand delegates, representing 200,000 members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in all parts of the English speaking world, are in the biennial convention of the order which began at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon in Music Hall. Aside from the delegates it is expected that 20,000 members of the order will be in attendance at the sessions. The convention will be in session until Saturday.

The Hibernians represent practically the entire people of the world of Irish birth or of Irish blood. The organization has for its purpose the promotion of the interests of the Irish people. It is strong in all the countries of the world, where there are any Irish people, and has grown amazingly in strength in this country in the past few years. Through affiliations in other countries, there are practically a half million members of the order. There are delegates present at this convention from Canada, Hawaii, Mexico, Ireland, England, Scotland and the United States.

Marched

to Church.

At 9:30 o'clock Tuesday morning the delegates and the members of the order of the order in the city met at the Lindell Hotel and marched to St. Patrick's Church, Sixth and Bidwell streets, where solemn high mass was said in the presence of Archbishop John J. Glennon. Besides the archbishop, many of his clergy were present.

The first session of the convention was opened with an address of welcome by Archbishop Glennon. Other addresses were made by Mayor Wells, P. R. Fitzgibbon and John J. O'Connor, the latter state president of the organization. There were responses to the address of welcome by the vaudeville stars of the order, the principal one by James E. Dolan of Syracuse, N. Y., national president.

Important

Business.

The order has much important business at this session, some of which will not be announced until it is ready for action by the convention. One of the principal matters which will come up early in the convention proceedings, will be the adoption of resolutions, denouncing the present manner in which the Irish are pictured on the stage, especially upon the vaudeville stage. The matter of the language accredited to the people of Ireland, as sometimes pictured on the stage, is very obnoxious to all people of that blood, who pronounce it far from the true picture of the people of that country. The songs sung and the actions portrayed give the people who do not know the Irish race an entirely wrong impression of the people, and it will be made a part of the business of the convention to remove, so far as is possible, this false impression. The members do not expect by their resolutions to be able to remove the character from the stage, but they do expect to be able to show wherein that portrayal is wrong.

To Build a Home.

The establishment of a national home for members of the order will also be considered. For several conventions the order has been talking of the establishment of this home. Each time the realization of the plan has come a little closer, but never have the final details been arranged. It is not probable that the closing plan for the home will be decided upon at this convention, but it is expected that a committee will be appointed to make full investigations of the suggestions offered, and be ready with a report for the next convention to be held in 1906.

The program calls for the election of national officers at the closing day's session, Saturday. There is thought to be only one contest, and that is for the office of national secretary. There are six candidates for this position. The present incumbent, James P. Bree of New Haven, Conn., desires re-election, while others wanting the honor of the position are: James T. Carroll, Columbus, O.; Richard McGinn, Patterson, N. J.; Patrick Donahue, Philadelphia, Pa.; J. Creamer, Richmond, Va.; Patrick F. Cannon, Clinton, Mass. All have many friends, and it is stated that at the opening of the convention, none will have an advantage over the others unless it is Mr. Bree, whose work as national secretary has been highly satisfactory to the organization.

So far there is no talk of the place for holding the next convention. The present national officers of the order are: James E. Dolan, Syracuse, N. Y., president; James O'Sullivan, Philadelphia, vice-president; James P. Bree, New Haven, Conn., secretary; M. J. O'Brien, Richmond, Ind., treasurer; directors, P. J. O'Connor, Savannah, Ga.; John T. Keating, Chicago; D. J. Hennessy, Butte, Mont.; W. J. Cronin, Boston, Mass.

Barrington will remain in jail at Clayton until his case is taken up by the supreme court, which will not reach it until the October term, and possibly not until November or December.

Alleged Detectives Arrested.

Two men, giving the names of White and Bayers, and representing themselves as being in the employ of the St. Louis police, were arrested by Deputy Sheriff John Stearns and Constable George Walters on a charge of picking pockets. The officers say they caught the men with a pocketbook which contained $10 and which had been stolen from James C. Ward, a visitor in St. Louis from Kansas.

LONESOME TIME HAS LITTLE ETHEL

Though Only 6 Years Old She Is Keeping House for Her Father, Edward Ahearn.

Little Ethel Ahearn, 6 years old, is keeping house for her father, Edward Ahearn, a railroad man, living at 1118 Papin street. It is a lonesome housekeeping for the little girl, for her mother and her little sister, May, and her little brother, Leo, are all at the City Hospital.

The mother is very ill with typhoid fever. The children are less seriously ill from lack of the attention which the sick mother has been unable to give them.

The mother has been ill for a week, but until Monday night she remained at home, nursing her sick babies and trying to keep house for the three children and her husband. But Monday night she felt that the limit of her endurance had been reached and, with May and Leo, went to the City Hospital and asked admittance.

The physicians were alarmed at her condition and hurried her to bed. The children were placed on a cot beside her, for she would not consent to having them taken from her. Tuesday morning Mrs. Ahearn had a very high fever, but the hospital doctors think they can cure her in spite of the long time that she was without proper treatment.

But they say it will probably be several weeks before she is able to return to her home and relieve little Ethel of the household work that has become hers.

DAUGHTER WITNESS TO DOUBLE TRAGEDY

Jealous Iowa Farmer Shoots His Wife and Then Turns Revolver on Himself.

DES MOINES, Ia., July 19.—Tom Anderson, a wealthy retired farmer living at Linn Grove, Buena Vista County, today shot his wife through the head, killing her instantly, and then sent a bullet through his own head.

The shooting was done in the presence of a daughter.

Anderson had been insanely jealous of his wife, who left him some days ago. Her refusal to return to live with him precipitated the tragedy.

New Novelty Twine Suitings---Tomorrow at Almost Half Price

We bought the manufacturers' entire surplus stock, consisting of 237 pieces of the highest grade Novelty Twine Suitings, and we cannot impress too strongly the importance of the purchase from a bargain-giving standpoint.

Novelty Twine Suitings are greatly in demand for summer dresses and skirts. They are light, cool and airy, and while they are similar to etamines they are much newer and better, the yarns being twisted better and the fabric being much firmer. They will not sag like cheap voiles. In this great lot at 19c a yard are all colors, the designs being little white dashes. The value is positively 35c a yard—choice of this lot tomorrow at 19c per yard.

THE WRONG DIAGNOSIS

Prompt the Use of Worthless Remedies.

Even an experienced physician will sometimes make a mistake in diagnosis, in which event his entire treatment is wasted and may even be injurious to the patient.

The advocates of all other hair restoratives save Herpicide have wrongly diagnosed the cause of Dandruff and Falling Hair.

They figure on a functional disease, whereas it is now known and generally accepted that hair loss is due to a parasitic germ which Newbro's Herpicide destroys.

There is no substitute for Herpicide; accept none.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. Raboteau & Co., Wolff, Wilson Drug Co., special agents in St. Louis.

GORMAN CHOICE OF THE LEADERS FOR CHAIRMAN

Democratic Chieftains From Many States Agree on Him and Hope to Induce Him to Accept—He All but Refuses the Honor.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE IS CALLED TO MEET JULY 26

New Yorkers Pledge Electoral Vote of State to Parker and Davis—Maryland, West Virginia and Indiana Are in Line for Victory.

Special to the Post-Dispatch. NEW YORK, July 19.—Senator Arthur Pue Gorman of Maryland will be chairman of the Democratic national committee and be grand marshal of the Parker campaign if he will accede to the wishes of Parker and Davis and the party leaders of the country.

This fact was made plain at a conference of the Democratic chieftains held last night at the Hoffman House. There was no formal discussion of the chairmanship at the meeting, but both before and after the conference a strong preference for Gorman was made plain by the old leaders.

Senator Gorman declared that he would not accept the place, but his Democratic colleagues refused to regard his decision as final.

They believe that with the experienced Maryland campaigner at the helm Roosevelt can be overwhelmingly defeated.

One of the chief objects of the conference was to select the battleground for the campaign. The New York leaders assured the party chiefs from other states that they need give no concern to the Empire state. "The result," they explained, "will not be known absolutely until the votes are counted, but it is as certain as anything in a campaign can be that Parker will carry the Empire state by a large majority."

The evident ring of sincerity and confidence with which the New York leaders made this promise greatly impressed the assembled leaders from the South and West.

Ex-Senator Davis and Senator Gorman assured the conferees that the prospects were most bright in West Virginia, Maryland and other border states.

Speaking for Indiana Mr. Kern, who is slated for the gubernatorial nomination, declared the Hoosier state stands ready to turn its back once more upon Republicanism and to join with New York in restoring Democratic supremacy in the nation.

New Jersey, Too, Is Promised.

Ex-Senator Smith, speaking for New Jersey, said that in his judgment the prospects of Democratic success in his home state are most excellent.

Senator Bailey, who arrived from Texas early in the day, made it plain that he believes the national chairman should be selected from the middle West.

"Personally," the Texas leader said, "I am for Mr. Taggart of Indiana. But there is a tendency to do nothing except that which will tend to party harmony and success at the polls."

Mr. Kern, who spent Sunday with Judge Parker at Esopus, said:

"I favor the selection of Mr. Taggart. The people of the West want him for national chairman. I found Judge Parker a cheerful candidate, and he is sanguine of success. The people of Indiana regard the money question as settled, and on the live issues of the campaign there is no doubt about Judge Parker carrying Indiana."

Both Senator Gorman and John R. McLean, the Ohio leader, expressed a strong preference for the selection of William F. Sheehan for chairman. Mr. Sheehan made the argument that Mr. Sheehan, as Judge Parker's personal representative, would play a most important part in the campaign and that he might as well play this part as national chairman as in any other capacity. Mr. Sheehan's New York friends objected to this plan solely on the ground that his health would not admit of his undertaking the routine duties of the chairmanship.

The eclipse of Mr. Hill as the alleged head and front of the Parker canvass was plain when it was announced by Hill's friends that Mr. Sheehan, and not Mr. Hill, would tell the leaders from other states Judge Parker's views on the national chairmanship and other matters of importance.

Sheehan Only Spoke for Parker.

When ex-Senator Davis, Senator Gorman, Senator Bailey of Texas and other leaders wanted to know the desires of the presidential candidate they had to ask Sheehan to tell them. No one else knew and no one else even pretended to be authorized for the head of the ticket.

Last night's conference was the first of several which the party leaders will hold here during the present week. It was called by Mr. Sheehan at the request of ex-Senator Davis who desired to get into touch with his party friends before paying a visit to Esopus.

The West Virginia leader calculated that he could dispatch his business with Judge Parker much more effectively and promptly if he should learn just where the party leaders in other states stand before going to Rossmont. With this idea in mind he had invited the leaders to meet him at the Hoffman House last night.

The striking feature of the conference was the confidence in victory which all of the leaders seemed to feel. All of the leaders evinced a disposition to accept whatever suggestions seemed best calculated to bring success at the polls in November. There was no classing of personal ambitions, and if the St. Louis convention left any rancor the fact did not crop out during the last night's conference.

When they went into the meeting it was with the intention of deciding nothing, but merely to go over the situation in such states as were represented.
